

Daniel has been in the organization for nearly 13 years in various roles such as Government Affairs, Asset Management, Strategy, several Project Management roles in acquisitions and divestments and in the Sustainability area. Currently, he is Sustainability Venture Lead in the Sustainability & Business Stewardship function leading among other topics the sustainability commitment to reduce the environmental impact of our crop protection portfolio per hectare by 30%.

Daniel is passionate about driving change, building bridges, innovation, and collaboration.

He is married with two children.

